The Mostly Legal Podcast: Season 3, Episode 8 "More than Just Networking: How the ALA Cultivates Special Friendships"

developers · Monday, October 31st, 2022

Did you ever think the ALA could bring you some of your best friends? This week, we welcome Jessica Daugherty, the Director of Administration at Wesierski & Zurek. Jessica opens up to Rob and Amanda about how the ALA is not just a place to swap business cards, but rather a place that, if you allow it, can provide you with deep and special friendships. A large impact is due to ALA members understanding what you are going through on a day-to-day basis. Listen to this week's episode to learn you can always find your tribe!
